

South Covington Community Action Association
12-13-07 Meeting Notes
(In lieu of Minutes during the absence of a Secretary for the Organization)

In lieu of minutes for the December holiday gathering/get together we would like to take this opportunity to again thank those who have helped South Covington achieve our many accomplishments for 2007.

They include:

Public Works Director, JIM EGGEMEIER, who replaced our tagged signs, street signs where we had none, maintaining our cul de sac green space, installed litter signs in the Lakewood Hills subdivision, street cleaning and replacing a needy side walk.

DON GREISS who is employed by Public Works as our Animal Control Officer. He has been invaluable with dog issues we have encountered in 2007.

Safety Fair held in May of 2007: We need to thank:

Public Works, JIM EGGEMEIER;

Recreation: DENNY BOWMAN;

Company 5 Fire Department;

Covington Police Department;

Suzann Gettys,

Duke Energy;

Donations from Covington City Commissioners.

Covington Police Department: POLICE CHIEF LEE RUSSO, CAPT BRYAN ALLEN, KEN SHIRLEY and all the OFFICERS who provided much needed assistance in South Covington. I can never thank them enough!

State Highway Dept: Repairing pot holes in such short turn around times, litter pick up, restriping Hands Pike: LARRY TRENKAMP; BOB YEAGER: installing litter signs, replacing signs torn down with traffic accidents at the intersection of 3L and Hands Pike, Hands Hill litter pick up.

Owen Electric: for all the numerous street lights they have replaced this past year

Code Enforcement: DIRECTOR KEITH BALES and OFFICER ROB WHEELER, KEN SHIRLEY

Commissioners: JERRY BAMBERGER, JERRY STRICKER and STEVE MEGERLE

COVINGTON MAYOR BUTCH CALLERY who has personally come to our assistance in at least a minimum of 3 times this past year and provided a much appreciated "nudge".

Recreation: DENNY BOWMAN in handling park issues on Hands Pike, litter pick up on Hands hill, replacing sidewalks in the Lakewood Hills subdivision, cutting back trees and brush at the top of the Hands Pike hill.

Great American Clean Up: Public Works and JIM EGGEMEIER

Fire Department (Company 5): CAPT FREDERICK, LT CAPPEL and LT CROSS

Ombudsman and Neighborhood Services SUZANN GETTYS, everything and then some. I truly would not know where to begin thanking her!

January 10, 2008 our Guest Speaker will be Jenni Wiehe, Cabinet for Health and Family Services at 7:00 PM at the Hands Pike Firehouse.
